

I sincerely appreciate not being disturbed by unsolicited calls which generally concern something someone is selling which I would not consider at any time. Please do not change the current legislation preventing these calls.